COLLEGE OF CHARLESTON
DEPARTMENT OF FRENCH AND FRANCOPHONE STUDIES

SYLLABUS: FRENCH 202-05 DE
Wednesday, Oct. 7th through Tuesday, Dec. 1st

"One language sets you in a corridor for life. Two languages open every door along the way" Frank Smith

Name of instructor: Dr. Martine Cuvillier-Hiers
Email : hiersm@cofc.edu
Office: All appointments will be on Zoom
Phone: Cell: (843) 729-4042
Contact hours: I can be reached on my cell phone and by E-mail.

Contract:
Because we don't actually meet face-to-face, it's essential that you maintain an active presence in the class, posting and reading responses a minimum of 4 times/week and staying active in the discussion forums.
I can see when you log onto OAKS and monitor your progress through the class.

Part of this French 202 course will be run like a traditional course, except that the online format should encourage more exchanges between students than you might be accustomed to in a physical classroom. You will be expected to do the same sorts of activities that you do in a regular class such as reading and writing, guided by feedback from me, and some discussions, especially comments on a Chapter/Module's short film called a Roman-photo, which you can watch on VHLCENTRAL and/or comments on Culture, facilitated by the OAKS discussion board.

French 202 also includes a story by Jean Giono presented as an illustrated short film on the environment which will be studied in Module IV.

"It is essential that you stay on top of the course assignments. Those assignments due dates and reminders are found on the course calendar and in content, but it is on you to make sure that you don't fall behind, especially in a class this short. Do not make the mistake of thinking this is an easy class because we are meeting online, or because it is an express course! The material is demanding and will take a lot of time and effort on your part.

An Express course normally entails roughly 8 hours of classroom time per week, plus reading and homework each night. The workload for this class will be similar.
Using the chat tool: OAKS features an Instant Messaging tool that allows you to get in touch with your classmates or your instructor. When you click on the "Classlist" tab in the top toolbar, you'll get a list of names. Anyone with a green dot next to his/her name is currently signed in. Check the box next to the name and press the "Page User" button at the top of the class list. If you see that I'm online and you have a question, feel free to use this tool for a real-time answer, though I'm not always sitting at the computer when I'm logged on.
"Weekends! Because discussions in an online class are asynchronous, they will necessarily move at a slower pace than conversations in a physical classroom. I expect that many of our conversations around certain subjects will extend beyond the weekdays and that you may have to complete some assignments over the weekend as the schedule indicates.

IMPORTANT DATES:

Course starts: Wednesday, October 7th

Last day of class: Tuesday, December 1st

Course Description and Objectives:
This course is intended to deepen students' knowledge of French Language and Francophone Cultures and is part of the General Education requirement for the College. In this course students will do the following:
1. Read, write and understand a language other than English.
2. Use their knowledge of a language other than English to analyze the perspectives of historical and/or modern cultures that can be obtained only through reading and/or listening to that language.

Textbook:

ESPACES, Rendez-vous avec le monde francophone,* 6th Ed. (ISBN: 978-1-66994-725-7). Supersite Plus Code (withWebSAM and vText) AND loose-leaf textbook. You will use these materials this semester AND for FREN 202.
These materials are available through Cougar Complete.

If you have opted-out of Cougar Complete, you may buy the ESPACES package at the CofC bookstore OR directly from the VHL publisher via the following link: https://vistahigherlearning.com/store/school/collegeofcharleston

*Supplementary material when needed can be found in the section "content" of the course site on OAKS. In this section you will find all the answers to the exercises suggested for practice in each module.

Required hardware for this course:
High-speed internet, microphone, speakers and headphones.

Required software for this course:
Firefox, Safari, Chrome or Internet Explorer browser.
Always use CHROME when accessing Voice Tread from the content area. Call Students' Support Desk. (843) 953-8000 if you are experiencing any issues with Voice Thread.

Technical problems:
All technical issues should be directed to the Student Support Desk at (843) 953-8000 or at studentcomputingsupport@cofc.edu . Technical issues do not constitute a valid excuse for not meeting your deadlines. Do not wait until the last minute to complete your assignments.

Delivery format of the course:
This course follows an asynchronous online format. It allows for flexibility and gives the opportunity to motivated students or students with a busy work schedule to complete the coursework on the Internet. All tests including the Final will be given on-line on OAKS.

Community Statement and Communication Expectations:

Welcome to Intermediate French through Culture 202!
Since you are taking a language course in an online environment, it is essential that you participate by answering the questions I will post in the appropriate discussion area of each module as well as by commenting on the responses posted by the members of your group in the online classroom.

Note: Any question you may have on the course content, unless personal, should be posted on the discussion board titled "Questions regarding Module… ." found in the first part of each module/chapter. What sometimes may appear as a technical problem can in fact be a simple issue one of your classmates could help you with.

Getting a sense of community is essential in an online environment. Comments on each other's posts may address ideas on the topic of the module but they may also address the way your classmates formulated questions (vocabulary and/or grammar) and you are encouraged to make suggestions/corrections if needed. That constant interaction, exchange of ideas or mentoring roles taken on by students at times help the rest of the group gain increased confidence in writing and speaking, so crucial when trying to express oneself in a foreign language. Students' active participation in those forums helps dissipate the feeling of isolation one may experience in an online environment. Your classmates and your instructor participate to foster that sense of community through monitoring, guiding and suggesting.

Since Interaction and group discussions are an important part of this course, be mindful of the way you phrase your comments/suggestions when replying to other group members' posts. All rules of online etiquette apply when you communicate with your instructor as well as with your peers!

Course structure:

This course starts on Wednesday, Oct.7th and ends on Tuesday, Dec.1st

This course has 4 modules and the first 3 modules correspond to chapters 13, 14 and 15 of your textbook Espaces.

Since we have roughly 50 days for this DE COURSE, the term will be divided in segments of 12/13 days including weekends.
Therefore, each module WILL have to be completed within this timeframe. Look at your deadlines regularly since all chapters/modules DO NOT necessarily start or end on the same day!

THE FIRST THREE CHAPTERS/MODULES contain the same set of activities (Watch the due dates regularly!)
THE FOURTH CHAPTER/ MODULE has a different set of activities based on Jean Giono' s story "L'homme qui plantait des arbres"*

Here is an example of this structure:

1. Study vocabulary of Chapter part A and repeat after me (listen to VT recording)
2. Take vocabulary quiz on part A set up on OAKS…….. Due date: ____
3. Study vocabulary of Chapter part B and repeat after me (listen to VT recording)
4. Take vocabulary quiz part B set up on OAKS…….. .Due date:____
5. Watch both episodes of Roman-photo through your VHL site.
6. VIDEO-record your answers to my questions on both episodes on Voicethread……..… Due date:____
7. See videos/powerpoints on "Structure" and start completing corresponding exercises on your VHL.
8. Practice structure with suggested exercises and check your answers (last module in content)
9. Read both segments of the chapter in Espace Culture
10. Practice with Activités based on Culture
11. Participate in "Discussion group" based on Espace Culture (small groups)..……..…….. Due date: ____
12. Finish Completing your exercises in VHL…….…… Due date: ____
13. Take Chapter/Module test on OAKS…….. Due date: ____

You have 6 due dates per chapter/module (except for Module 4) but you must start studying ahead of time to complete those assignments.
All assignments with deadlines must be turned in before 11:59 pm (EST) of the due date.

Assessment:

1. Quizzes
a) The quiz titled "J'ai lu mon syllabus" will be available as soon as the course opens up. This quiz is MANDATORY and will help assess your understanding of the course structure. It will have to be taken before working on Module I.
b) 7 vocabulary quizzes will be given throughout this term (two per chapter, except for chapter 16): One for vocabulary of the illustration of section A and one for vocabulary of the illustration of section B. Missed quizzes CANNOT be made up! The quizzes will be set up on OAKS.
(There are 10 questions to complete in 5 minutes +1-minute grace period. Study your vocabulary well before taking the quiz!)

2. Participation: Communication tools.

Your participation grade is divided in 2 assignments and will count 25% of your final grade.

A. First assignment: Discussion board in the Discussion tool within OAKS for each module to post:
a) 5 sentences in a paragraph to answer or comment on my thread on the Discussion board
b) 5 short comments/suggestions on your group members' answers
How will I be graded?
For each module a student's participation grade will be 100 points
50 points for posting a paragraph of 5 sentences (10 pts per sentence) to answer my thread on the Discussion board assigned to your group
50 points (10 pts per comment) for five comments made on different partners' posts within your assigned group
Note: (If classmates assigned to your group have not responded when you are ready to complete your assignment, you are welcome to participate into another group.)

What are the grading criteria?

Use of any AI writing tools will be considered plagiarism and will result in getting a'0'on the assignment the first time a student uses this tool and a withdrawal from the course for any subsequent violation of the Honor Code.

Quantity: make sure that you post a paragraph of 5 sentences to answer the question asked in the title of the post and 5 COMMENTS on other group members' answers.
Quality: It is a language course and you must check the spelling and the grammatical structure of the language used in your answers/comments
Timeliness: Your contributions to the discussion (answers/comments) will have clearly indicated due dates. All assignments must be submitted on those dates before 11.59 p.m. (EST)

NOTE: Simply agreeing with a classmate's comment or repeating a classmate's comment in your commentwill not earn you any credits.

You are welcome to communicate with each other through other communication tools to help one another with structure or accent. I will regularly check what is posted on OAKS to monitor your progress and make suggestions if needed.

B. Second assignment: VoiceThread or VT. Once again use CHROME

As a language course, speaking is an important component. Since we are in an online environment, you will use VoiceThread to VIDEO-RECORD your answers, in Frenc,h to the set of questions I posted on VT for each chapter/module.
Once again, all technical issues should be directed to: Students'Support Desk at (843) 953-8000 or at studentcomputingsupport@cofc.edu

3. Chapter/Module Tests on OAKS. (Use CHROME to listen to the oral components of your tests)

Completion time for each test is 60 minutes +1-minute grace period unless the test has a longer listening segment than usual, in which case it will be 90 minutes +1-minute grace period. (The sequence will be the same for the first three chapters/Modules Tests) Make sure you are well prepared! Tests are based on the material covered in each lesson. Please, consult the STUDY GUIDE before each test!!
Each exam may contain the following sections:
1. listening comprehension based on the Chapter/Module vocabulary, the Roman Photo and Culture delivered through Kaltura.
2. vocabulary in context
3. Culture in context (definitions)
4. Grammatical structures
5. Reading comprehension (not for all modules)

The dates of the tests are listed on the syllabus. The lowest test score will be dropped. Again, should you fail to take your test online within the timeframe indicated on your syllabus, this will count as your dropped score.

4. VHL-CENTRAL: Exercises online in your VHL-Site online textbook!

You are expected to complete all assigned activities by the due dates listed for each VHL-CENTRAL unit. Your online workbook/lab manual provides guided study and practice to reinforce your learning of French. You will submit the assignments electronically. Those assignments are always due by 11:59 pm one day before the chapter exam and are graded automatically by VHL-CENTRAL. The due dates for each set of exercises for each lesson/chapter in VHL-CENTRAL are indicated in each module listed in this syllabus. You are NOT graded for COMPLETION as you would in a face-to-face course.
Your scores DO COUNT and I recommend that you start working on your VHL exercises as soon as you have completed the practice exercises on structure I recommend in each module/chapter. In the event of a late submission, your grade will be reduced by 20% per day after the due date.

PLEASE NOTE that a downed server is NOT AN EXCUSE for not completing exercises on time!

LATE WORK WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED. You are responsible for completing and submitting all assignments by the dates listed on the syllabus. In order to be fair to everyone in your DE course, please DO NOT ASK for exceptions to these policy.

Your grade will be based on the following:

"J'ai lu mon syllabus" (mandatory quiz)	5%
Chapter/module tests (4: lowest score dropped)	30%
Participation	25%
a) VoiceThread recordings (10%)
b) Discussion board participation (10%)
Quizzes (7 quizzes)	15%
Web SAM (3 lessons)	25%
	100%

Grading Scale:

A 93 - 100	A - 90 -92	B + 88-89	B 83-87	B - 80 - 82	C + 78 - 79	C 73 - 77
C - 70 - 72	D + 68 - 69	D 67	D - 66	F 0 - 65

Attendance
This course is taught online and therefore you will not be in a classroom setting for lectures, quizzes, chapter tests and final exam. However, your regular participation is expected and you are responsible for completing all assignments indicated in this syllabus for each chapter/module within the indicated timeframe or at a specific time whatever the case may be. Late submissions will not be accepted. To keep up with your assignments, I recommend that your get on OAKS a minimum of 4 to 5 times/week.

IMPORTANT: There are two activities which students must complete in order not to be withdrawn for excessive absences: Voice Threads and Discussion board participation.
Students who do not participate in at least 3 of the 4 Voice Threads and at least 3 or the 4 discussion boards will be dropped for excessive absences. Those activities cannot be made-up after the due dates indicated on the syllabus!

If, in a case of a serious illness or a family tragedy, you do not take a test within the time frame indicated on your syllabus, that will be ONE test score dropped automatically. If, for similar reasons, you are incapacitated for the Final Exam, you must provide me with a verified excuse from the office of the Dean of Students, located at 67 Glebe street.

Participation and Classroom Policies
The rules on courteous behavior in a regular classroom setting apply to the online setting of this course, especially when you communicate with your professor via cell phone, e-mail, Chat, or when you participate in discussion groups and/or assigned group activities with your classmates.

Students with documented disabilities who may need academic accommodations must notify me the first day of class of class. For more information, go to http://disabilityservices.cofc.edu/index.php

College of Charleston Honor Code and Academic Integrity Lying, cheating, attempted cheating, and plagiarism are violations of our Honor Code that, when identified, are investigated. Each incident will be examined to determine the degree of deception involved.

Incidents where the instructor determines the student's actions are clearly related more to a misunderstanding will be handled by the instructor. A written intervention designed to help prevent the student from repeating the error will be given to the student. The intervention, submitted by form and signed by both the instructor and the student, will be forwarded to the Dean of Students and placed in the student's file.

Cases of suspected academic dishonesty will be reported directly by the instructor and/or others having knowledge of the incident to the Dean of Students. A student found responsible by the Honor Board for academic dishonesty will receive a XF in the course, indicating failure of the course due to academic dishonesty. This grade will appear on the student's transcript for two years after which the student may petition for the X to be expunged. The student may also be placed on disciplinary probation, suspended (temporary removal) or expelled (permanent removal) from the College by the Honor Board.

Students should be aware that unauthorized collaboration--working together without permission-- is a form of cheating. Unless the instructor specifies that students can work together on an assignment, quiz and/or test, no collaboration during the completion of the assignment is permitted. Other forms of cheating include possessing or using an unauthorized study aid (which could include accessing information stored on a cell phone), copying from others' exams, fabricating data, and giving unauthorized assistance.
Students can find the complete Honor Code and all related processes in the Student Handbook at http://studentaffairs.cofc.edu/honor-system/studenthandbook/index.php AI Writing tools ARE NOT PERMITTED for any stage or phase of work in this class. If you use these tools, your actions would be considered academically dishonest and a violation of the College of Charleston's Honor Code.

*General Education Student Learning Outcomes: At the end of the last module!!
Outcome 1: Students read French. Evidence: Students will be given an authentic reading text in French at the end of the last module and will be asked reading comprehension questions about the text.
Outcome 2: Students will write in French. Evidence: Students will be given a writing assignment in French Outcome 3: Students understand French. Evidence: Students will be given an unknown passage in French and will be asked to answer comprehension question about the text.
Outcome 4: Students use their knowledge of French to analyze the perspectives of historical and/or modern cultures that can be obtained only through reading and/or listening to that language. Evidence: Students will be given an authentic text in French and will be asked to identify the cultural perspective and/or viewpoint expressed in that authentic text, and give examples from the text to prove their analysis.
